portfolio for web dev

plan: version:1.0

page 1 : landing page

h2 heading : "front-end web developer, artist" underneath an intro p describing developer. big space, then clickable, animated img with bouncing animation and text on img : "view portfolio" indicating user click this to view content

page 2: portfolio

h2 heading: "portfolio" and underneath small p about the work and why I like it. big space, then project gallery. each project should have title (h3), then img of finished product underneath. after img, links to each step of the process that open in new tab. 1 per width on mobile, 2 per width on desktop.

- links to new pages:

  - planning

  h2 heading : "001. planning". underneath, a screenshot of plan img should be clickable blur on hover with text: "click to view". link opens .pdf of plan - include written and wireframe plans. under this, links to the other steps for that project 1 per width on mobile, 2 per width on desktop.

- design

h2 heading: "002. design". underneath, a screenshot of detailed mock-up and typography example. img should be clickable, blur on hover with text: "click to view". link opens .pdf of design - include mock-up and typography. under this, links to the other steps for that project. 1 per width on mobile, 2 per width on desktop.

- development

h2 heading: "003. development". underneath, a screenshot of code. img should be clickable, blur on hover with text: "click to view". link opens to github repository for personal portfolio, official website for freelance work. under this, links to the other steps for that project. 1 per width on mobile, 2 per width on desktop.
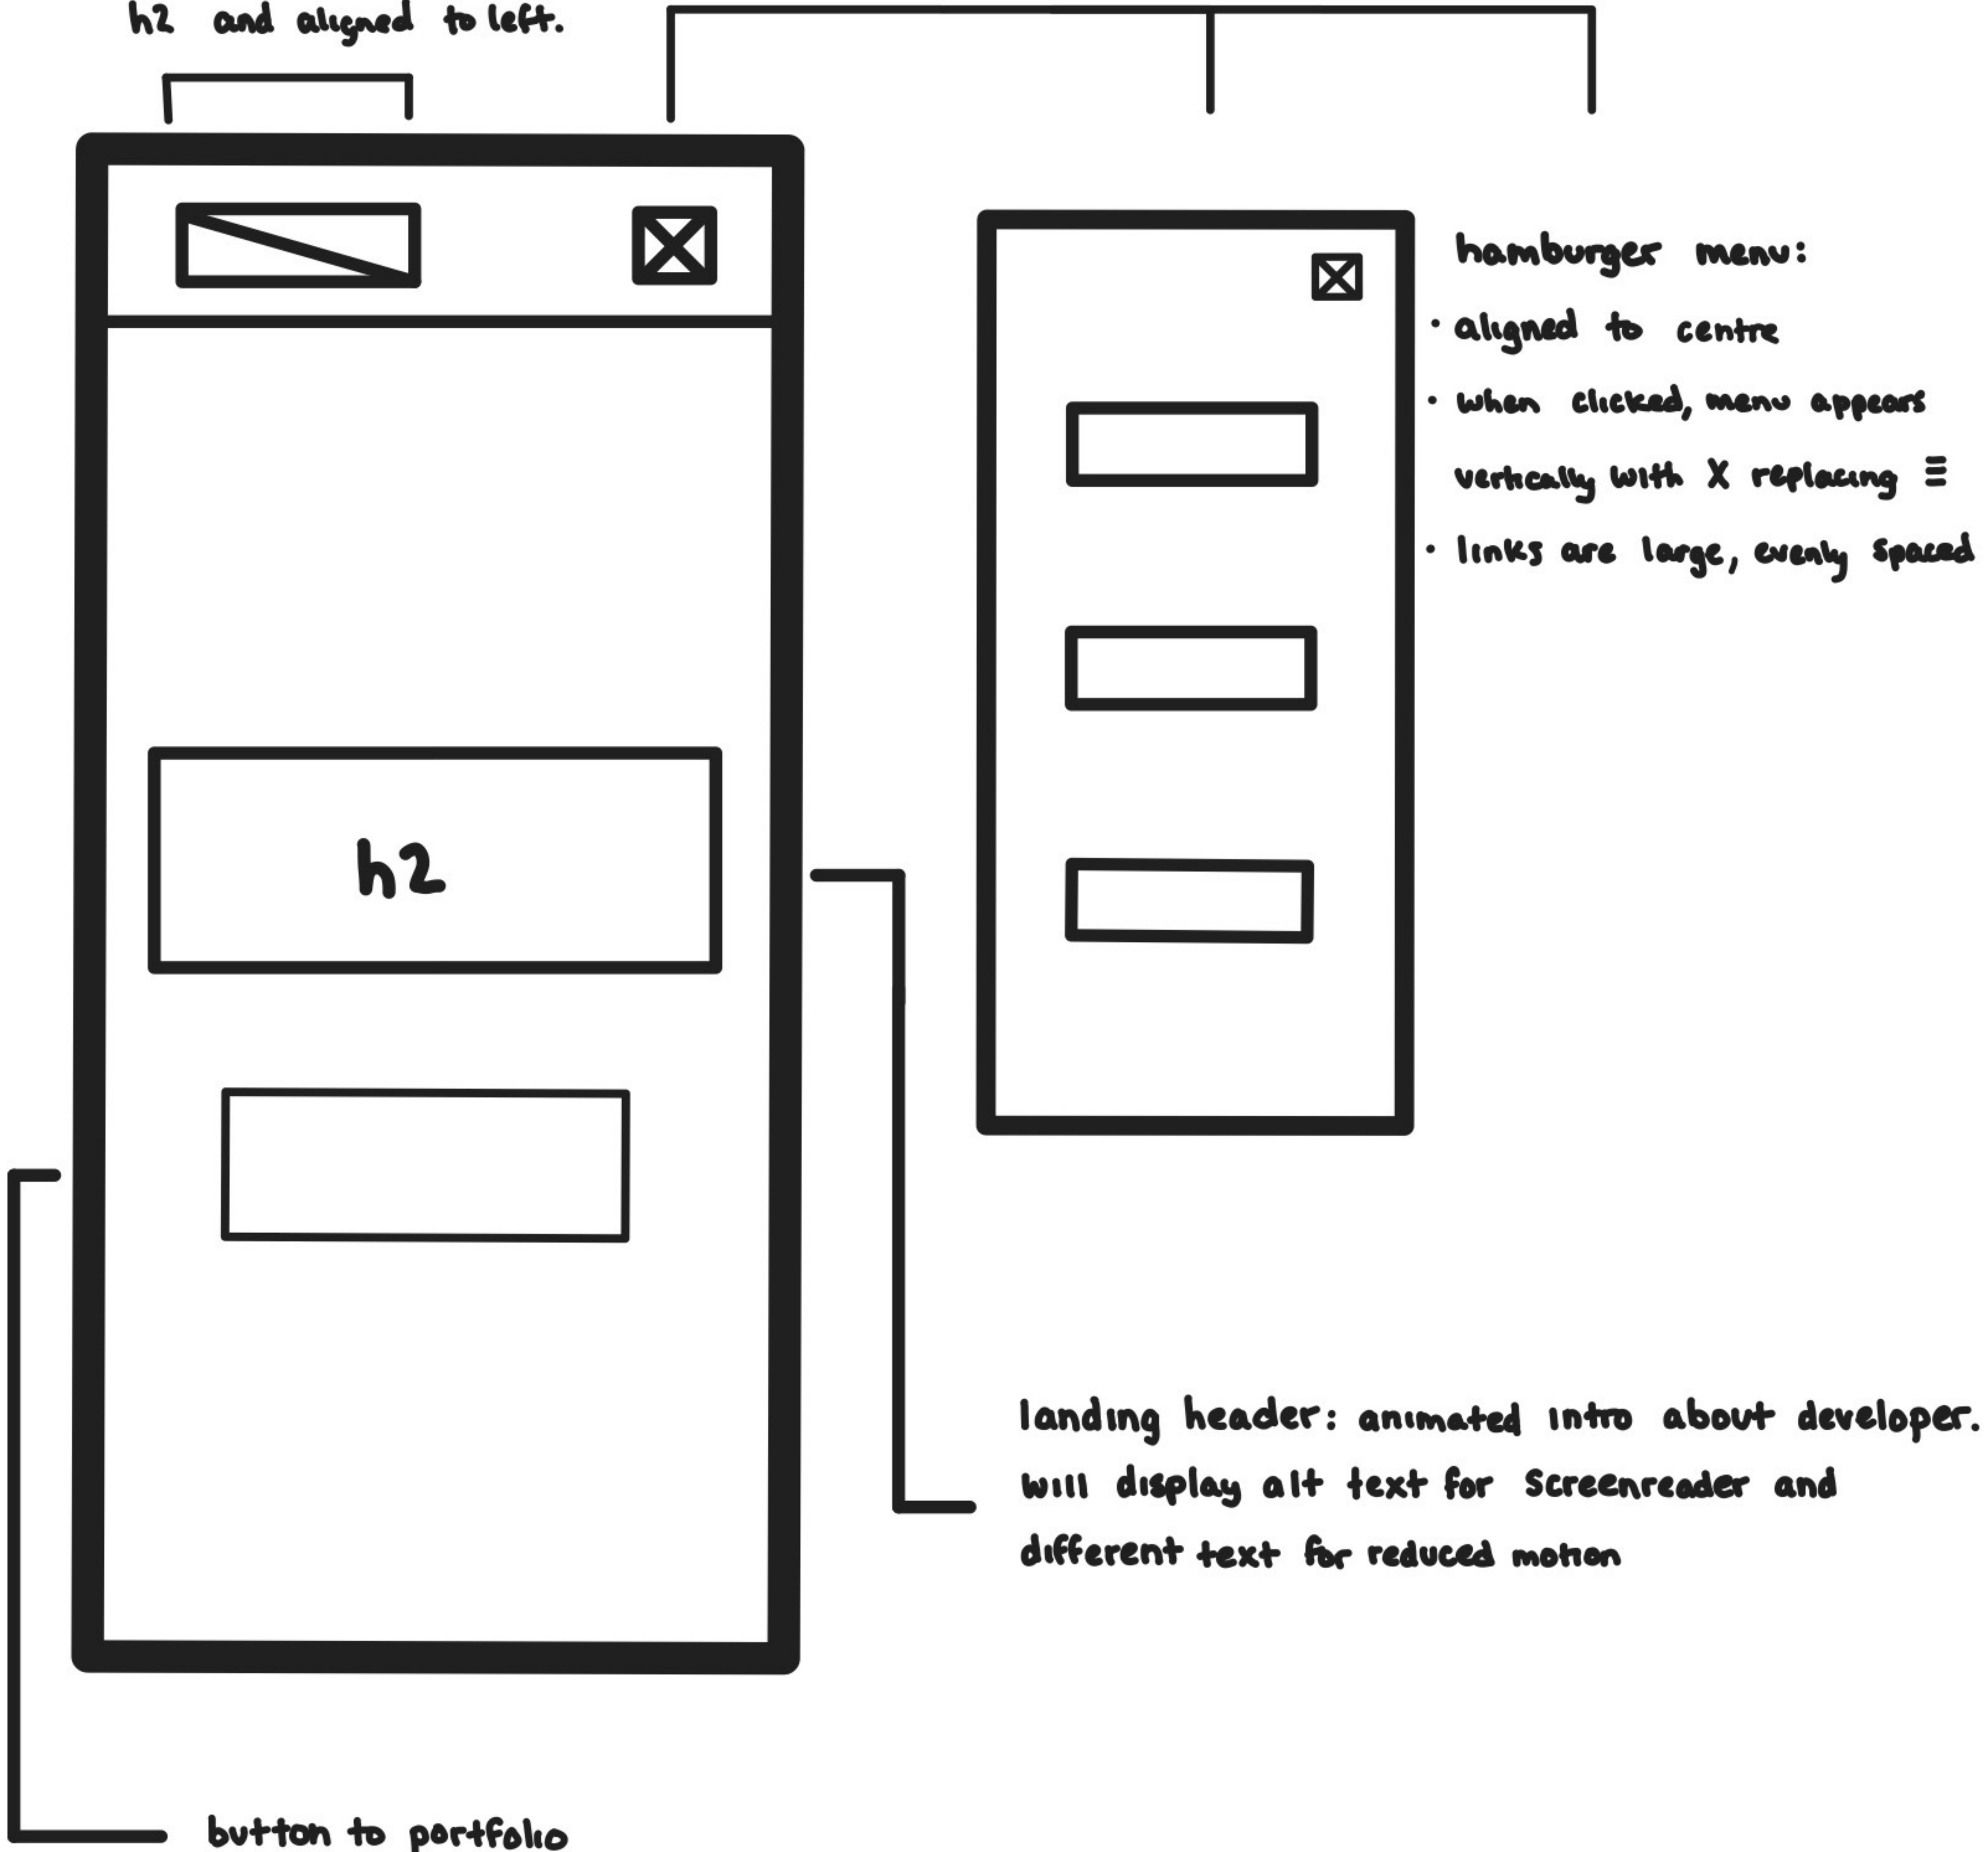

page 3: about

no header, centered on page a p about developer with img to right of it. medium space, then clickable logos that link to: resume, linkedin and github centered underneath page 4: Contact

h2 heading: "contact". big space, then contact box with email, name and content fields (should have captcha enabled). medium space, then clickable logos that link to: resume, linkedin and github centered underneath landing (mobile)

logo (h1) is smaller than h2 and aligned to left.

h2

hamburger menu:
- aligned to centre
- when clicked, menu appears vertically with X replacing ☰
- links are large, evenly spaced

landing header: animated intro about developer. will display alt text for screenreader and different text for reduced motion

button to portfolio

landing (desktop)

logo (h1) Slightly larger than h2 and aligned left

menu:
- aligned to the right
- links are Smaller, Space between, Italic underline on hover

h2

button to portfolio

landing header: animated intro about developer. Will display alt text for Screenreader and different text for reduced motion

Portfolio (mobile)

h2

h3

portfolio header and intro: h2, intro paragraph follows, then links to each project which scroll to project section (on same page)

project tiles:
everything is centered
except for links, which
are aligned left.
each tile has enough padding
on top and bottom to be 100%
of screen height.

portfolio (desktop)

portfolio header
and intro:

Same orientation
as landing page

h2

links that skip
to each project

each project tile is 100% of viewport height.
everything aligned to centre

about (mobile)

avatar: 50% contrast,
border radius. centred

about section:
Centered vertically
and horizontally

logo links:
Centred

about (desktop)

about section:

centred all — horizontal and vertical

Contact (mobile)

h2

contact form:
all items centred
on their own line,
logo links centred
on same line

Contact (desktop)

h2

Contact form:
Same orientation as mobile view